Though the mountains leave their place and the hills be shaken My love shall never leave you nor My covenant of peace be shaken, says the Lord, who has mercy on you. (Isaiah 54:10)

Reflection: Sometimes we take God's promises for granted. We have listened to them so many times that their meaning makes no impact on us. But consider: "Though the mountains leave their place..." God's love is so steadfast, there is no event that could diminish it. There is no action on our part by which He would consider us unworthy. Have we shared this good news with anyone lately?

Advent Action: Visit a friend you haven't seen in a while and spend time really listening to what they have to say.

Pray for those affected by war and natural disasters.

Prayer: Lord, Your wondrous good news of unshakable love for me, leaves me comforted and at peace.
